

Invitation to the Cramér Society Summer School 2011:

Statistical Learning

I have the pleasure to invite you to the Cramér Society Summer School in Statistics and Mathematical Statistics 2011. The topic is Statistical Learning. The summer school is directed to anybody who is interested in the topic, like academic teachers and researchers, PhD students and statistical practitioners outside the university. It is possible for participants to give short presentations of their own research related to the topic of the school.

Invited speakers:

Dr. Jennifer Castle, Oxford University

Automatic Model Selection

Prof. John Shawe-Taylor, University College London

Introduction to Statistical Learning Theory

Assoc. prof. Mattias Villani, Bank of Sweden and Stockholm University

Bayesian aspects of statistical learning

Time and dates:

The School starts on Monday the 13th of June in the afternoon and ends on Thursday the 16th of June midday.

Conference Venue and accommodation:

Asa Herrgård, Växjö. Currently, 10 single rooms, 20 double rooms at Asa Herrgård and 57 beds at a nearby youth hostel, out of which 10 are in single or double rooms, are available for bookings. The prices for the entire conference period (three nights with all meals included) are:

Asa Herrgård, single room, 3936:-

Asa Herrgård, double room, 3036:-

Youth hostel, single room, 2823:-

Youth hostel, double room, 2730:-

For further information, see

<http://www.asaherrgard.se/>

Conference fee:

1000 Sek for students, PhD or other.

3000 Sek for other participants.

Deadlines:

April 1st for submission of abstract for presentation. The abstract should be sent to

Rolf.Larsson@statistik.uu.se

You will be notified as to if your presentation is accepted or not by April 15th at the latest.

May 1st for registration.

Maximum number of participants:

60.

How to register:

Please pay your conference fee to pg 52 58 69-4. Your registration date is considered to be the date of payment. For accommodation, please notify our secretary at Jessica.Franzen@slu.se. Doing so, please specify type of room (single or double) and if you want to stay at Asa Herrgård or at the youth hostel. In case you prefer to share rooms, please write if you know with whom you want to share.

Warmly welcome!

Rolf Larsson

Chairman of the Cramér Society